

Scholarships for a training stay

Purpose of the scholarship

The scholarships are awarded as part of the DAAD programme "Ukraine Digital: Ensuring academic success in times of crisis" in cooperation with the Faculty of Foreign Languages at the National Yuri Fedkovych University in Chernivtsi. The aim is to support teachers in a war-related crisis situation in the preparation and implementation of online teaching. The stay is based on the individual teaching specialisations in order to convey a European perspective to the students in the online teaching in Chernivtsi and to carry out corresponding online teaching in the 2025/2026 teaching year.

What requirements do I have to fulfil?

1. You are active in teaching and prepare online courses at the Faculty of Foreign Languages at CHNU.
2. Interests/topics in co-operation with German colleagues.
3. Knowledge of the English or German language (fluent)

What benefits do I receive?

- Accommodation and mobility allowance per person (96 to 103 euros per day depending on qualification and 350 euros mobility)
- Duration: 10 days in January 2025 (proposed dates from 20/01/2025 to 29/01/2025)
- We offer 4 scholarships

Application documents

1. Curriculum vitae in German or English
2. Motivation letter in English or German, in which you describe your teaching goals and expectations for the stay and specifically address how the stay could contribute to your academic progress in the academic teaching year 2025/2026.

Application deadline
