

10 Online Scholarships

Purpose of the scholarship

The scholarships are awarded as part of the DAAD programme "Ukraine Digital: Ensuring academic success in times of crisis" in cooperation with the Faculty of Foreign Languages at the National Yuri Fedkovych University in Chernivtsi. The aim of the programme is to enable Ukrainian students in the (financial) emergency situation to participate in online studies in Ukraine.

What requirements should I meet?

1. you are a student of the Faculty of Foreign Languages at the CHNU or associated with it through your Ukrainian home university.
2. you are in a (financial) crisis due to the war situation.
3. you are registered for the online courses taught in cooperation with PH Ludwigsburg or due to the war you had to continue your studies online.
4. your academic performance is very good.

What benefits could I receive?

- 200 EUR per person/month (term: 01/09/2024-31/12/2024)

Application documents

1. curriculum vitae
2. transcript of records from CHNU and/or the Ukrainian home university
3. letter of motivation in which you describe your (financial) emergency situation and specifically explain how the scholarship can support you in your study progress. This also includes a list of the online courses that are taught in cooperation with the Ludwigsburg University of Teacher Education (see list on p. 2-3) that you would like to attend and a justification for your choice of course. If you are awarded a scholarship, active participation and completion of course-related tasks is mandatory.

Application deadline

31.08.2024

Please send the documents by e-mail with a pdf attachment to the e-mail address: interof@chnu.edu.ua. The selection will be made by a joint Ukrainian-German selection committee in an online group interview on 03-05 September 2024.

Digital Umbrella for Ukrainian Foreign Language Teachers

Background: Together with its German partner university, the Ludwigsburg University of Education, CHNU has acquired funding for a project in the DAAD programme "Ukraine Digital: Ensuring Student Success in Times of Crisis", which aims to support online teaching at CHNU. The "Digital Umbrella for Ukrainian Foreign Language Teachers" project will initially run until 31 December 2024 and, in addition to online scholarships, also includes the establishment of a language tandem, further training for teachers, online teaching assignments and other measures.
